

Sava TIES Kick-off Event and 2nd Steering Committee Meeting Announcement

Next week, from 1st till 4th October 2018, the Sava TIES Initial Public Kick-off Event and the 2nd Steering Committee Meeting will take place in Novi Sad, Serbia. During the initial Kick-off Event, which will be held on the first day, the Sava TIES project will be presented to the general public and all the relevant stakeholders in the Sava River basin. The project activities will continue for the next three days during which the 2nd Steering Committee will be organized. These events are very important for the project promotion and successful advancement. You can also contribute to or benefit from the project. Are you interested how? Join us at the public kick-off event and you will find out more!
